	Having a baby is hard work and giving birth brings great change both physically and to the family dynamic. To maximize recovery and help this family bond appropriately, for best long term results mother and baby are spending most of the day together quietly resting and adjusting. While your visit is appreciated by the family, please assist them in this critical time by limiting the length of your visit and be understanding of the priority of family bonding prohibits the new baby being held by anyone but the mother/father. For the health of the new baby, please DO NOT come in if you or your children are sick.
	f you are invited in, please consider helping out by doing one or more of the following (circled):
